$$X_{t+1} = \frac{X_t}{X_{t-1}} \times 100$$

که در آن X_t مقدار خرید در سال t است.

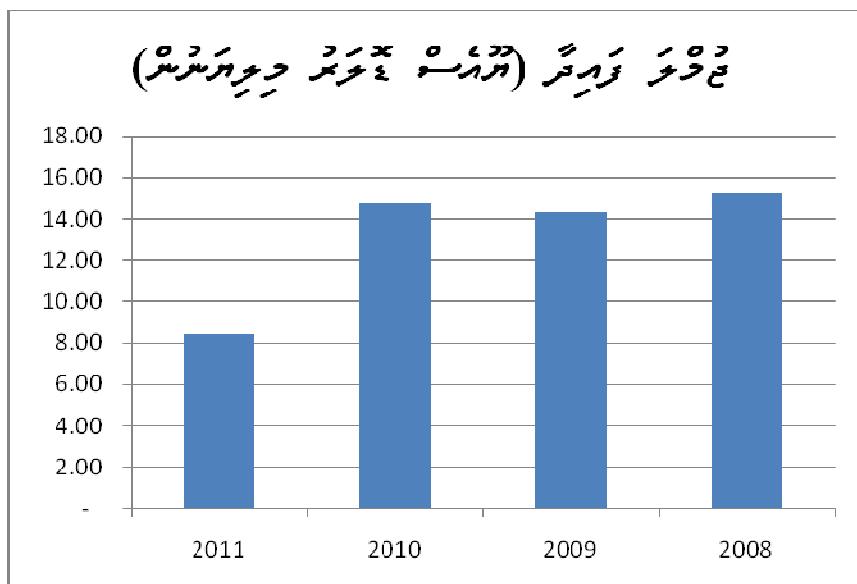

با استفاده از این تابع برای محاسبه میزان خرید در سال ۲۰۱۱ میتوان این را در تابع زیر مشاهده کرد:

$$X_{2011} = \frac{X_{2010}}{X_{2009}} \times \frac{X_{2009}}{X_{2008}} \times \dots \times \frac{X_2}{X_1} \times 100$$

Independent Auditors' Report
To the Shareholders of
Maldives Tourism Development Corporation PLC

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Maldives Tourism Development Corporation PLC (the "Company"), which comprise the statement of financial position as at 31st December 2011, and the statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and exhibited on pages 3 to 27.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As disclosed in Note 13.1 to the financial statements, the Company has incurred an amount of US$ 7,472,852/- as at 31st December 2011 for the construction of a city hotel in Uligamu in Haa Atoll. However, the construction work of the City hotel has been suspended during the year ended 31st December 2010 and the Company is in the process of finding a development partner to complete the remaining development work since then. However, the Company has not carried out impairment test on the carrying value of the conduction work in progress as at the year end. We were unable to ascertain whether a provision for impairment is required for the carrying amount of the construction work in progress as at 31st December 2011.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effect of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion Paragraph, the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Company as at 31st December 2011 and of its performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Others Matters

The financial statements of the Company as at and for the year ended 31st December 2010 were audited by another auditor, who expressed unmodified opinion on those financial statements on 15th April 2011.

Purchased software that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalized as part of that equipment.

(i) Recognition and Measurement

When parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment. Gains and losses on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment, and are recognized net within other income in profit or loss.

(ii) Subsequent Costs

The cost of replacing a part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognized in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company, and its cost can be measured reliably. 3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

3.3 Property, Plant and Equipment (Continued)

(iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated over the depreciable amount, which is the cost of an asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its residual value.

Depreciation is recognized in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment, since this most closely reflects the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset.

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

Leasehold Buildings	Over 23 Years
Plant and Machinery	Over 10 Years
Office Equipment	Over 05 Years
Other Equipment	Over 05 Years
Furniture and Fittings	Over 05 Years

3.4 Investment Properties

Investment property is property held either to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or for both, but not for sale in the ordinary course of business, use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes. Investment property is measured at cost on initial recognition and subsequently at fair value with any change therein recognized to the in profit or loss.

Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the investment property. The Cost of self-constructed investment property includes the cost of materials and direct labor, any other costs directly attributable to bringing the investment property to a working condition for their intended use and capitalized borrowing costs.

Any gain or loss on disposal of an investment property is recognized in profit or loss. When an investment property that was previously classified as property, plant and equipment is sold, any related amount included in the revaluation reserve is transferred to retained earnings.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Amortization is charged to the income statement on a straight line basis over the estimated useful life of asset unless such life is indefinite. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Computer Software 3 Years

3.6 Inventories

Inventories have been valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and selling expenses.

The Cost is generally determined by reference to first in first out principle and includes expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories and bringing them to their existing condition and location.

3.7 Impairment

(i) Financial Assets (including receivables)

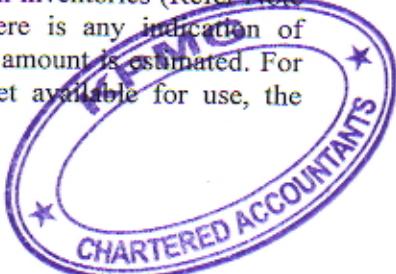

A financial asset not carried at fair value through profit or loss is assessed at each reporting date to determine whether there is objective evidence that it is impaired. A financial asset is impaired if objective evidence indicates that a loss event has occurred after the initial recognition of the asset, and that the loss.

The Company considers evidence of impairment for receivables at both a specific asset and collective level. All individually significant receivables are assessed for specific impairment. All individually significant receivables found not to be specifically impaired are then collectively assessed for any impairment that has been incurred but not yet identified. Receivables that are not individually significant are collectively assessed for impairment by Companying together receivables with similar risk characteristics.

An impairment loss in respect of a financial asset measured at amortized cost is calculated as the difference between its carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the asset's original effective interest rate. Losses are recognized in profit or loss and reflected in an allowance account against receivables. Interest on the impaired asset continues to be recognized through the unwinding of the discount. When a subsequent event causes the amount of impairment loss to decrease, the decrease in impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss.

(ii) Non-financial Assets

The carrying amounts of the Company's non-financial assets, other than inventories (Refer Note 3.6) are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. For intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives or that are not yet available for use, the recoverable amount is estimated each year at the same time.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets.
